11. The name of the exhibitor will not be displayed before completion of judging, but may be included in display of entries.
12. Junior members will pick up entry tags at the Youth Building for all exhibits except livestock. Livestock entry tags may be picked up at the Main Office.
13. All premium cards and ribbons must be displayed during the exhibition. No person can make any change or withdraw any article entered for competition or exhibition after being judged. This rule will be rigidly enforced in all departments. Positively no classes accepted except those listed on the Website. 4-H and FFA members are not to have more than 2 entries per class.
14. The Society reserves the right to refuse any entry in any department for sufficient reasons.
15. The rules printed herein are made a part of the conditions under which all entries of exhibitors are made, and exhibitors are respectfully requested to read them carefully, thereby avoiding confusion at the time of the Fair.
16. All bedding to be furnished by exhibitors.
17. Refer to Domestic Arts Department for all rules governing Domestic.

JUDGES AND JUDGING:

17. No person shall be a judge in any class in which he or she is an exhibitor.
18. All judges must report to the Director/Superintendent of the appropriate area before leaving grounds on day they serve.
19. For youth or 4-H entries, judges are requested to hold demonstrational judging explaining their reason for awards, thus increasing the educational value of that exhibit.
20. Judges are required in all cases to examine all entries, even where there is no competition. In order to be granted an award or premium the entry must be worthy of said recognition. Where the judging is based on the group award system, the award of EXCELLENCE will be awarded a blue ribbon, the award of GOOD a red ribbon, and the award of WORTHY, a yellow ribbon. NO RIBBON MEANS NOT SALE WORTHY.
21. A written and signed complaint against the action of any officer or official of the Fair, or any judge, may be brought before the Board of Directors at a regular meeting. The Board will consider the evidence and then take appropriate action upon it. The decision of the Board of Directors will be final.

22. Any discrepancies concerning the payment of premiums shall be made in writing, signed by the party making the complaint and submitted to the Board of Directors by September 1, of the fair year.
23. Any misrepresentation regarding any entry, interference with any official of the Fair or judge, or unsportsmanlike conduct on the part of any exhibitor will be dealt with by the Board of Directors in accordance with the merits of the case.
24. Judges and superintendents are requested to check every entry shown on the judges' book and mark entries not present or unworthy as such.
25. If NY State should remove its subsidy for premiums or if there is stormy weather or any other unexpected event occur at the Fair to reduce the net receipts below the requirement for premiums, the Board of Directors reserves the right to pay premiums on a pro-rated basis after all expenses have been paid.
26. Annual Membership ticket entitles the owner to attend the Annual Meeting of the Society held in December, and vote for the Directors of the Society whose election is held at this meeting. These may be purchased in the fair office, or by sending payment to the fair office. (See Ticket section)
27. Directors of other Agricultural Societies and representatives of the press are cordially invited to report to the Fair Office, where they will receive the customary courtesies.
28. All persons are forbidden to enter or leave the Fair Grounds except through the gates during the Fair. A Pass is required to enter the fairgrounds.
29. No rain checks will be given because of inclement weather or mechanical problems.

REMOVAL OF EXHIBITS:

30. NO ARTICLE OR EXHIBIT ENTERED FOR A PREMIUM SHALL BE REMOVED FROM THE FAIR GROUNDS UNTIL SUNDAY UNLESS DESIGNATED OTHERWISE. Failure to abide by this rule will result in the cancellation of premium awards. Market Animals sold at Auction on Wednesday evening may be removed on Sunday from 7AM to 8AM. NO OTHER EXCEPTIONS.
31. All animals must be registered in the stud, herd, or flock books of their respective breeds and the exhibitor must present his registration papers to the Superintendent in charge of that department before show day. In case the animal is being registered or transferred and the certificate of registry has not been returned, a sworn statement to this effect from the secretary of the association in question will be accepted.
32. All animal exhibitors are responsible for cleaning up after their animals. This includes wash racks, milking parlor and walking to and from wash rack and show rings.
33. ATTENTION ALL EXHIBITORS: ALL MEDICAL SHARPS OR MEDICAL WASTE PRODUCTS MUST BE DISPOSED OF PROPERLY. Medical waste receptacles are available near the end of each animal barn. DO NOT, under any circumstances, throw sharps in the trashcans, Manure pit, feedbags, or bedding. ANY exhibitors failing to follow this procedure will automatically FORFEIT all prize money and WILL NOT BE ALLOWED TO Show at the Allegany County Fair for THREE CONSECUTIVE YEARS. There will be ZERO tolerance for such offense.

IN LIEU OF THE CERTIFICATE – NOTE!!! Papers pending will be accepted only for junior calves on which application for registry has been made. Animals born after March 1, current year, and purchased by exhibitor less than 90 days (but must meet the 30 day ownership rule) before deadline for entry, may be entered with papers pending if the certificate of transfer and papers pending notice from the breed association is presented to the superintendent.

The Society reserves the right to withhold the premium on alleged purebred or alleged standard bred stock until satisfied that said stock is entitled to the premium awarded.

Any judge who may suspect the pedigree of or representations concerning any article or animal will at once report the same to the Superintendent of that department. The Superintendent will investigate the matter at once by referring to the Secretary's books and taking other evidence.

AGES:

34. The ages of animals entered for premiums will be computed as stated in each appropriate department.

SUPERINTENDENTS:

35. Department Superintendents are to act in accord with the Director-in-charge. Responsibilities include, but are not limited to: listing the number and kind of ribbons/rosettes to be ordered, and list changes desired for the Fair Website. The lists and changes should be left at the Fair Office.
